

FROM THE MAYOR'S DESK

EAGLE MOUNTAIN IS THE THIRD LARGEST CITY IN UTAH IN TERMS OF LAND MASS AT AROUND 53 SQUARE MILES. THE CITY IS APPROXIMATELY LESS THAN 25% DEVELOPED, LEAVING MILES OF UNDEVELOPED LAND IN THE CITY FOR RESIDENTS TO ENJOY.

It is the beautiful landscape, the rural feel, and great views of Utah Lake and surrounding mountain ranges that attracted many of us to Eagle Mountain. These undeveloped lands are jewels waiting to be discovered, but most of these lands are not owned by the City, but by Federal, State, or private agencies. Since May 2000, Eagle Mountain has prohibited the use of off-highway vehicles on City streets, which displaced OHV activity to undeveloped land. Due to this displacement, the City has noticed a steady increase of illegal and unwanted OHV trails within the last decade, along with an increase in trespassing, hunting, dumping, and other nuisance issues on these lands.

In an effort to preserve these scenic lands, the City has teamed up with federal, state, and private agencies to engineer a managed OHV trail system that would legalize certain trails/routes for residents to enjoy while protecting the land. We have been working closely with these land agencies to approve designated trails/routes through their property. We have garnered several trail easements and aim to lay out trail markers and kiosks to properly direct and educate riders. We have submitted an OHV grant which will help the City provide signage for the trails. This OHV trail system would create a network of routes that connect our City to surrounding communities (Cedar Fort, Fairfield, and Saratoga Springs) and nearby trail systems such as: Five-Mile Pass, Manning Canyon, Soldier Pass, Israel Canyon, the summit of Lake Mountain, and more.

Last year, we conducted an OHV Survey online to receive public input. After getting a sufficient sample size, 88% of respondents were open to allowing limited OHV use on designated City streets. Following these results, and after months of researching with other cities and police departments, a new off-highway vehicle ordinance was approved by the City Council to be effective July 1, 2012 (see info on pg. 2). I would ask that our citizens protect their privilege and be responsible with OHV use, as the right to ride on City streets could be revoked at anytime.

Maps of the trail system and OHV street crossings can be accessed on the City website by clicking on the 'Off-Highway Vehicles' section under the 'Living in Eagle Mountain' tab.

MAYOR HEATHER JACKSON

SHERIFF'S DISPATCH

- Please keep children seat-belted, and in car seats if needed, at all times. Short distances are no excuse when it comes to the safety of our children. Most accidents happen close to home. Also remember, children should not ride in the front seat if you have front passenger side air-bags.
- To combat theft and vandalism, keep your car doors locked and make sure valuables are not left in your vehicle, especially overnight. Also, keep your garage door shut whenever possible.
- The Sheriff's Office is working hard to get our entire city actively participating in our Community Safety Program. If you'd like more information about it, or if you'd like to volunteer, call the Public Safety Office at 789-6701.

New Dispatch Number

There is a new phone number for non-emergency calls for service from the Utah County Sheriff or EM Fire Department: 801-794-3970. Please update your emergency contact information. For life-threatening emergencies or crimes in-progress, always dial 911.
