

YOU WILL NOTICE A CHANGE WITH THE DISTRIBUTION OF THE EAGLE'S VIEW STARTING THIS MONTH.

Instead of being sent to each residence as a separate mailer, it will be included with the utility bills. This will cut the cost for the newsletter almost in half and help to ensure timely delivery. A format change goes along with this, as it is now smaller in order to avoid additional postage.

We encourage you to get more frequent news and information from the City online. You can subscribe to our email notifications via the main page of our City website (left menu tab). We also have several social media accounts, including Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and Pinterest. For updates directly from me, you may follow my blog at mayorsvoice.com.

It is important to me to speak with residents in person as often as possible. I have been holding open houses at City Hall periodically on Fridays in the City Council Chambers. The dates and times for these are announced via my blog and/or the City's Facebook and Twitter. I plan to visit neighborhoods this summer. I hope this will be a better option for people at home with kids who can't make it over to City Hall. I will be creating an online sign-up form for those who may be interested. I'll keep you posted.

MAYOR CHRIS PENGRA

Mayor Pengra joined Meals on Wheels for Mayors for Meals day last month and helped deliver lunches to homebound seniors like Angeline (pictured above) in Eagle Mountain. Seniors age 60 and over who are homebound are eligible for the program. For more information, visit mountainland.org - aging and family services.
