

THE PRISON RELOCATION COMMISSION (PRC) HAS SCHEDULED A PUBLIC MEETING TO BE HELD ON JUNE 2 AT FRONTIER MIDDLE SCHOOL, 1427 MID VALLEY ROAD IN EAGLE MOUNTAIN.

The meeting will be an open house format from 4:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m., with a moderated question-and-answer session from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Unfortunately, there will not be any direct participation by voting members of the PRC (elected officials). The meeting will be attended by staff members of the PRC (non-elected officials), the Utah Department of Corrections, the Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice, and the PRC's consulting team.

The meeting will be for the benefit of Eagle Mountain and Fairfield residents (both with sites on the potential relocation list) and is one of three meetings scheduled, with others in Salt Lake City and Grantsville. If you want to see more information about the two sites in our area that are under consideration, there is a video on Youtube titled "Virtual Tour - Potential Correctional Facility Sites in Utah." For more information about the Prison Relocation Commission, you may want to visit the PRC committee web page at le.utah.gov/prc.

In other events, Alyssa Diaz turned over the Miss Eagle Mountain crown to Ella Barlow on May 2. Congratulations Ella. Kaylie Blacka was crowned 1st attendant, Katie Spencer was 2nd attendant, and Mckell Finch was crowned 3rd attendant. These young ladies work hard to prepare for the competition and give a lot of time in service to the community once crowned. Ella and the attendants will serve as Eagle Mountain's ambassadors at events throughout Utah as they support charitable causes and serve others. We thank them for their efforts.

Lastly, Pony Express Days runs from June 2-June 6. We have some new events planned this year, including a dodgeball tournament. We love our community events, and we want you to be a part of their success. We have opportunities for volunteering with the events. If you want to help, please contact our events coordinator Dawn Hancock at dhancock@emcity.org.

We are looking for help with the following:

- *Parade station check in (15 positions)
- *Scavenger Hunt organizer (1-2 positions)
- *Vendor check-in during carnival (4 positions)
- *Pooper scoopers during the parade (6 positions)
- *Scorekeepers for softball tournament (4 positions)

I look forward to seeing many of you at the Pony Express Days events and would like to personally invite you to the Mayor's Pancake Dinner on June 3 at Nolan Park, where myself and city council members will be serving the food. I'd love to chat with you and answer any questions you may have.

Kara Allen Named Woman of the Year

Kara Allen received Eagle Mountain City's Woman of the Year award at the 2015 Miss Eagle Mountain Pageant.

Allen was cited for being a successful business woman, with her party planning business Kara's Party Ideas, a published author, mom to three boys, youth leader, and numerous acts of service, including helping an orphanage in Mexico.

Recently, Allen established a campaign for young women for 60 Days of Service. With other youth leaders she coordinated random acts of service and encouraged the young women to come up with their own and post them on social media to inspire others to do the same. Allen created a video to document their accomplishments.

NEWS BRIEFS

Water Conservation/Restricted Hours

Eagle Mountain City is a member of the Central Utah Water Conservancy District. The District website at www.cuwcd.com is a good resource for conservation tips, as well as providing information on free gardening/landscaping classes, kids' classes, events, and concerts. Irrigation product rebates are also available. Conservation is always important, but it is especially important this year with the low snowpack.

The City follows recommended conservation methods. In spring months the irrigation systems operate at a reduced capacity and are increased as temperatures get hotter. The City and The Ranches HOA will be working together to do what we can to reduce the amount of water on roads and fix any malfunctioning areas of the system in a timely manner.

Please be aware that per City code, operation of irrigation systems between the hours of 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily is prohibited. Penalty for violating the code is first a written warning and second, termination of water service until a $100 reconnection charge is paid to the City.

We encourage everyone to do what you can to conserve water and help prevent the necessity for severe water restrictions in the summer months.

Central Utah Clinic Now Open

Central Utah Clinic is pleased to provide Eagle Mountain City residents with a more convenient option for healthcare services—urgent care, family medicine, and OB/GYN. Urgent care services are available Monday through Saturday (8:00 a.m.–8:00 p.m.). No appointment is necessary; walk-ins are welcome. Family medicine is available by appointment. Please call 801-429-8037 to schedule an appointment.

Central Utah Clinic Women's Center will have providers available to see patients at the new clinic Monday through Friday (by appointment). For an appointment to see a Women's Center provider, please call 801-756-5288.
