All Eagle Mountain families are invited to attend our Community Information Night at Cedar Valley High School. We will hold Parent Teacher Conference for high school age students. Counselors will be available to assist with next year's high school registration. Free mental health screeners will be offered for grades 9 and up - sign up at bit.ly/3R8558w. Food trucks out front. JetFuel soda at the football stadium. School store open for swag. Colleges, tech and trade schools and apprenticeships, military and community resources will be set up in the commons to present and answer questions. These exhibitors include mental health organizations and therapy options, food pantry assistance, career exploration and assistance, suicide prevention, free babysitting services and Hispanic resources. Students can learn about college credit opportunities and assistance, career pathways and CTE internships.
