IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
IN AND FOR UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

STATE OF UTAH, : STATEMENT OF DEFENDANT
 : IN SUPPORT OF GUILTY PLEA
Plaintiff, : AND CERTIFICATE OF COUNSEL
vs. : CASE NO. 231402248
 : Judge Lund
PETERSON DREW MATHESON, :
Defendant. :

I, Peterson Drew Matheson, hereby acknowledge and certify that I have been advised of and that I understand the following facts and rights:

Notification of Charges

I am pleading guilty to the following crimes:

Crime & Statutory Provision

Manslaughter (Counts 1 and 2)
Second Degree Felony
UCA §76-5-205

Degree	Punishment Min/Max and/or Minimum Mandatory
Second Degree Felony	1-15 years Utah State Prison $10,000 fine 90% Surcharge

I have received a copy of the (Amended) Information against me. I have read it, or had it read to me, and I understand the nature and the elements of crime to which I am pleading guilty.

The elements of the crime(s) of which I am pleading guilty/no contest are:

1. The actor, as a party to the offense, recklessly causes the death of another.

I understand that by pleading guilty I will be admitting that I committed the crimes listed above. I stipulate and agree that the following facts describe my conduct and the conduct of other persons for which I am criminally liable. These facts provide a basis for the court to accept my guilty plea and prove the elements of the crime to which I am pleading guilty:

1. On June 4, 2023, in Utah County, Utah, I became involved in a traffic altercation with another individual. In the course of that altercation, I operated my motor vehicle in a reckless manner which resulted in a collision causing the deaths of two individuals in another vehicle.

Waiver of Constitutional Rights

I am entering these pleas voluntarily. I understand that I have the following rights under the Constitutions of Utah and of the United States. I also understand that if I plead guilty I will give up all the following rights:

Counsel: I know that I have the right to be represented by an attorney and that if I cannot afford one, an attorney will be appointed by the court at no cost to me. I understand that I might later, if the judge determined that I was able, be required to pay for the appointed lawyer's service to me.

I have not waived my right to counsel. If I have waived my right to counsel, I have done so knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily for the following reasons:

If I have waived my right to counsel, I certify that I have read this statement and that I understand the nature and elements of the charges and crimes to which I am pleading guilty. I also understand my rights in this case and other cases and the consequences of my guilty plea.

If I have not waived my right to counsel, my attorney is Edward K. Brass. My attorney and I have fully discussed this statement, my rights, and the consequences of my guilty plea.

Jury Trial. I know that I have a right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial (unbiased) jury and that I will be giving up that right by pleading guilty.

Confrontation and cross-examination of witnesses. I know that if I were to have a jury trial (a) I would have the right to see and observe the witnesses who testified against me and (b) my attorney, or myself if I waived my right to an attorney, would have the opportunity to cross-examine all of the witnesses who testified against me.

Right to compel witnesses. I know that if I were to have a jury trial, I could call witnesses if I chose to, and I would be able to obtain subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of those witnesses. If I could not afford to pay for the witnesses to appear, the State would pay those costs.

Right to testify and privilege against self-incrimination. I know that if I were to have a jury trial, I would have the right to testify on my own behalf. I also know that if I chose not to testify, no one could make me testify or make me give evidence against myself. I also know that if I chose not to testify, the jury would be told that they could not hold my refusal to testify against me.

Presumption of innocence and burden of proof. I know that if I do not plead guilty, I am presumed innocent until the State proves that I am guilty of the charged crime. If I choose to fight the charges against me, I need only plead "not guilty," and my case will be set for a trial. At a trial, the State would have the burden of proving each element of the charge beyond a reasonable doubt. If the trial is before a jury, the verdict must be unanimous, meaning that each juror would have to find me guilty.

I understand that if I plead guilty, I give up the presumption of innocence and will be admitting that I committed the crime stated above.

Appeal. I know that under the Utah Constitution, if I were convicted by a jury or judge, I would have the right to appeal my conviction and sentence. If I could not afford the costs of an appeal, the State would pay those costs for me. I understand that I am giving up my right to appeal my conviction if I plead guilty. I understand that if I wish to appeal my sentence, I must file a notice of appeal within 30 days after my sentence is entered.

I know and understand that by pleading guilty, I am waiving and giving up all the statutory and constitutional rights as explained above.

Consequences of Entering a Guilty Plea

Potential penalties. I know the maximum sentence that may be imposed for each crime to which I am pleading guilty. I know that by pleading guilty to a crime that carries a mandatory penalty, I will be subjecting myself to serving a mandatory penalty for that crime. I know my sentence may include a jail/prison term, fine, or both.

I know that in addition to a fine, a ninety percent (90%) surcharge will be imposed. I also know that I may be ordered to make restitution to any victim(s) of my crimes, including any restitution that may be owed on charges that are dismissed as part of a plea agreement.

Consecutive/concurrent prison terms. I know that if there is more than one crime involved, the sentences may be imposed one after another (consecutively), or they may run at the same time (concurrently). I know that I may be charged an additional fine for each crime that I plead to. I also know that if I am on probation or parole, or awaiting sentencing on another offense of which I have been convicted or which I have pled guilty, my guilty plea now may result in consecutive sentences being imposed on me. If the offense to which I am now pleading guilty occurred when I was imprisoned or on parole, I know the law requires the court to impose consecutive sentences unless the court finds and states on the record that consecutive sentences would be inappropriate.

Plea agreement. My guilty plea is the result of a plea agreement between myself and the prosecuting attorney. All the promises, duties, and provisions of the plea agreement, if any, are fully contained in this statement, including those explained below:

1. Counts 1 and 2 to be amended to third degree felonies pursuant to UCA §76-3-402 at the time of sentencing. In exchange for this amendment, Mr. Matheson will not contest that a sentence of prison should be entered.
2. The parties are free to argue whether the sentences imposed should be concurrent or consecutive.
3. Presentence report.
4. Counts 3, 4, 5, and 6 to be dismissed with prejudice in exchange for these pleas.

Trial judge not bound. I know that any charge or sentencing concession or recommendation of probation or suspended sentence, including a reduction of the charges for sentencing, made or sought by either defense counsel or the prosecuting attorney are not binding on the judge. I also know that any opinions they express to me as to what they believe the judge may do are not binding on the judge.

Immigration/Deportation: I understand that if I am not a United States citizen, my plea(s) today may, or even will, subject me to deportation under United States immigration laws and regulations, or otherwise adversely affect my immigration status, which may include permanently barring my re-entry into the United States. I understand that if I have questions about the effect of my plea on my immigration status, I should consult with an immigration attorney.

Firearm Admonition. I have been advised by the Court and my attorney that entry of this plea will cause me to become a restricted person for both State and Federal purposes. As I restricted person, I will not be able to possess firearms or ammunition. Possession of either a firearm or ammunition by a restricted person under state law is currently a second degree felony punishable by 1 to 15 years in prison and a $10,000 fine. The same offense in under federal law is also a felony punishable by imprisonment and fines set forth by statute and United States Sentencing Guidelines.

Defendant's Certification of Voluntariness

I am entering this plea of my own free will and choice. No force, threats of unlawful influence of any kind have been made to get me to plead guilty. No promises except those contained in this statement have been made to me.

I have read this statement, or I have had it read to me by my attorney, and I understand its contents and adopt each statement in it as my own. I know that I am free to change or delete anything contained in this statement, but I do not wish to make any changes because all of the statements are correct.

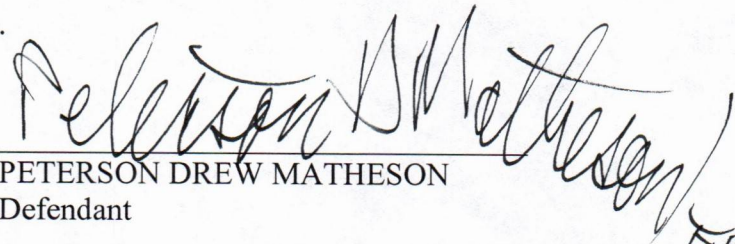

I am satisfied with the advice and assistance of my attorney.

I am 31 years of age. I have attended school through the 12th grade. I can read and understand the English language. If I do not understand English, an interpreter has been provided to me. I was not under the influence of any drugs, medication, or intoxicants which would impair my judgment when I decided to plead guilty. I am not presently under the influence of any drug, medication, or intoxicants which impair my judgment.

I believe myself to be of sound and discerning mind and to be mentally capable of understanding these proceedings and the consequences of my plea. I am free of any mental disease, defect, or impairment that would prevent me from understanding what I am doing or from knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily entering my plea.

I understand that if I want to withdraw my guilty plea, I must file a written motion to withdraw my plea before sentence is announced. I understand that for a plea held in abeyance, a motion to withdraw from the plea agreement must be made within 30 days of pleading guilty or no contest. I will only be allowed to withdraw my plea if I show that it was not knowingly and voluntarily made. I understand that any challenge to my plea made after sentencing must be pursued under the Post-Conviction Remedies Act in Title 78, Chapter 35a, and Rule 65C of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

Dated this 17 day of November, 2024.

PETERSON DREW MATHESON
Defendant

Certificate of Defense Attorney

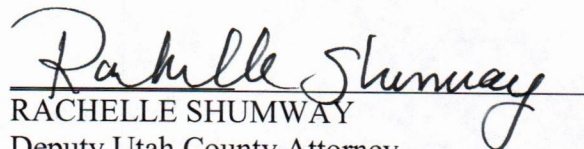

I certify that I am the attorney for Peterson Drew Matheson, the defendant above, and that I know he has read the statement or that I have read it to him; I have discussed it with him and believe that he fully understands the meaning of its contents and is mentally and physically competent. To the best of my knowledge and belief, after an appropriate investigation, the elements of the crime(s) and the factual synopsis of the defendant's criminal conduct are correctly stated; and these, along with the other representations and declarations made by the defendant in the foregoing affidavit, are accurate and true.

EDWARD K. BRASS
Attorney for the Defendant
Bar No. 432

Certificate of Prosecuting Attorney

I certify that I am the attorney for the State of Utah in the case against Peterson Drew Matheson. I have reviewed this Statement of Defendant and find that the factual basis of the defendant's criminal conduct which constitutes the offense is true and correct. No improper inducements, threats, or coercion to encourage a plea has been offered defendant. The plea negotiations are fully contained in the Statement and in the attached Plea Agreement or as supplemented on the record before the Court. There is reasonable cause to believe that the evidence would support the conviction of defendant for the offense for which the plea is entered and that the acceptance of the plea would serve the public interest.

RACHELLE SHUMWAY
Deputy Utah County Attorney
Bar No. 8177

Order

Based on the facts set forth in the foregoing Statement and the certification of the defendant and counsel, and based on any oral representations in court, the Court witnesses the signatures and finds that defendant's guilty plea is freely, knowingly, and voluntarily made.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that the defendant's guilty pleas to the crime sset forth in the Statement be accepted and his conviction is entered accordingly.

Dated this 19th day of November, 2024.

HON. ROBERT LUND
Fourth District Court Judge
